Biography:

Think you know who FURYON is? Think again!

Since their inception FURYON have been a band who like nothing more than to challenge expectations. Raised on a diet of heavy metal, prog, and classic rock, FURYON mix all these components for a truly unique and contemporary sound. Delivering huge rock radio friendly songs, with technically challenging, yet infectiously catchy musicianship. Dedicated to one sole purpose, making hard hitting songs that will stand the test of time.

From the outset FURYON have been forces to be reckoned with live. Word of mouth meant they soon became one of the biggest draws in Brighton's busy rock scene, selling out shows at the iconic Concorde 2 venue, usually reserved for high profile touring bands. The blistering power and passion of a FURYON show is something very special to behold.

What separates FURYON from the crowd is the sheer quality of their musicianship. Boasting two truly world class guitarists in the form of Chris Green, and Pat "The Shred" Heath. FURYON have few peers when it comes to the quality of their iconic riffs, and jaw dropping solos. Backing them up is one of the tightest rhythm sections the rock world has to offer with the awesome combination of Lee Farmery, and Nickel. Leading from the front is the outstanding vocal versatility of Matt Mitchell, whose emotion drenched voice effortlessly moves between melodic and crunchingly heavy.

In 2009, after a sellout tour, and accompanying EP, FURYON set about the serious business of writing their debut album. The early demo's reached the ears of US producer Rick Beato (SHINEDOWN, FOZZY), and a powerful and symbiotic relationship was formed. It became obvious immediately that Beato and FURYON were on the same page creatively, so much so that the band flew out to his Atlanta studio to record their stunning debut album the aptly named "GRAVITAS" in 2010.

FURYON are now pleased to announce that they have signed for management to ROCK N GROWL with the insight of taking their music to the masses. See you out there!

Frontiers Records recently announced the worldwide release of FURYON's debut album, Gravitas, on March 23 in Europe, March 26 in Japan and March 27 in North America, 2012 and later in Japan incl. bonus tracks.

In 2014 the band signed to Dream Records/Cargo Records and released the 2nd album on February 23, 2015

Since their inception FURYON have been a band who like nothing more than to challenge expectations. Raised on a diet of heavy metal, prog, and classic rock, FURYON mix all these components for a truly unique and contemporary sound. Delivering huge rock radio friendly songs, with technically challenging, yet infectious catchy musicianship. Dedicated to one sole purpose, making hard hitting songs that will stand the test of time. Whether it's the Melodic yet Edgy vocals or the shredding guitars, these guys deliver a live show not for the faint hearted.

2009

In the summer of 2009 FURYON flew out to Atlanta and Recorded their Debut album 'GRAVITAS' with Platinum selling US Producer 'Rick Beato', who'd received huge success producing US stadium Artists such as SHINEDOWN and VINCE NEIL. The chemistry of Beato & FURYON was nothing short of electric and resulted in what has now come to be know as 'The greatest Unsigned album by a British Rock band in Decades'.

2010

Once back in the UK the band released a limited run of 2000 copies of Gravitas. Rave reviews of the album quickly followed along with sell out shows across the UK. In 2010, Classic Rock magazine loved the sound so much that they mounted 3 tracks from the album called the 'Underdog EP' on the magazine to a worldwide market. Weeks later, Metal Hammer magazine chose the track 'Wasted on You' to be part of their cover mounted compilation CD, spreading the word of FURYON across all of Europe and resulting in sponsorship from the Energy drink company 'MONSTER'.

In late 2010 the band shot two videos for their upcoming singles. Disappear Again, shot in Manchester by 'Sitcom Soldiers'. And Don't Follow, which was shot LIVE in front of a sell out crowd in their hometown of BRIGHTON.

2011

In 2011, London PR giants 'DUFF PRESS' took the band under their wing and launched a huge single release campaign for 'Disappear Again', resulting in both the video and the single being played across all of UK's rock stations and networks. The single gained so much momentum that British video game developers 'Codemasters' insisted the song be part of the soundtrack for their upcoming game 'DIRT 3', which subsequently went to number 1 in the gaming charts. Within weeks the Disappear Again video gained THOUSANDS of hits on you tube, resulting in the bands social network sites being inundated with new fans. With the reputation of devastating stages at UK Rock & Metal festivals, such as BLOODSTOCK, HARD ROCK HELL, HAMMERFEST, and HIGH VOLTAGE, FURYON's live performances are continuously gathering momentum and fast gaining a reputation for being a 'Must See' band.

Monster Energy use the FURYON song "DON'T FOLLOW" as soundtrack to "The Le Mans bike race": <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p-y2nFVtrmA>

The band played many live shows, did a headliner tour in Spain and working in the moment hard on the second full length album.

2014

Furyon did the second time a headliner tour in Spain and played Prog Power Festival in Belgium

Furyon recorded the new album 'Lost Salvation' again with Rick Beato (Shinedown, Fozzy) for a release in 2015 and to play live shows.

The band signed to Dream Records/Cargo Records and announced the release of 2nd album on February 2015 in UK/Europe. The album will be available in stores and at all popular digital outlets. US/Canada release date to follow.

2015

UK rockers FURYON will released their second album, "Lost Salvation", on February 23 via Dream Records.

What's to be expected is more explosive guitar riffs and solos in well-crafted song form. Expressive vocal delivery and melodies to scream along to. A possibly darker album still with progressive elements and a grungy edge.
